

Working Group meeting on Core Criterion and Core Evidence Vocabulary (CCCEV)

Working Group members

SEMIC Phase 7

Name	Description
Ansgar Mondorf	Working for University Koblenz Landau (Germany).
Antonis Stasis	Working for the Hellenic Ministry of Interior and Administrative Reconstruction (Greece). They have used the CPSV-AP model, focusing on the "input" class.
David Mitzman	Working for InfoCamere (Italy).
Athanasios Karalopoulos	Programme Officer of ISA and responsible for the SEMIC project.
Emmanuel Jamin	Working for Everis. Emmanuel is an expert in Artificial Intelligence (A.I.) and in semantic interoperability.
Enric Staromiejski	Working at DG GROW.
Evelien Dhollander	Working for the Flemish Information Agency.
Giampaolo Sellitto	Working for Autorita Nazionale Anticorruzione. They are focusing on e-procurement, and specifically on evidence and criterion.
Irina Svensson	Working as a procurement lawyer for the Swedish national procurement agency.
Jery Dimitriou	Working at the University of Piraeus. Among others he is the technical leader of the SECD pilot, and he is also involved in the PEPPOL for evidence.
Loukia Demiri	Working for the Hellenic Ministry of Interior and Administrative Reconstruction (Greece) with AS (see above).
Makx Dekkers	Working on developing other specifications (e.g. StatDCAT-AP). Makx will be providing support to the editor of this work.
Marc Christopher Schmidt	Working at DG GROW. He is responsible for definitions for CCCEV.
Maria Wimmer	Working for University Koblenz Landau (Germany).
Muriel Founlonneau	Working at the Institute of Science & Technology (focusing on business life cycle and on e-SENS).
Neven Vrcek	Working for the University of Zagreb, Faculty of Organization and Informatics. They are mainly focused on developing public registers.
Nikolaos Loutas	Working for Working for PwC, and assisting the editor of CCCEV. He is the project manager, assisting the EC.
Ole Madsen	Works for DIGST in Denmark.

---

Oriol Bausa Perin	Oriol has previous experience in developing core vocabularies. He will be the editor for this work.
Peter Winstanley	Working for the Scottish government (semantic technologies). He has been involved in many core vocabularies.
Raf Buyle	Working for the Flemish Information Agency (AIV).
Stefanos Kotoglou	Working for PwC, and assisting the editor of CCCEV.
Timo Rantanen	Working for Hansel - the central procurement body for Finnish Central Government. They are implanting e-tendering and other e-procurement tools (excl. e-Invoicing and e-Payment) for the Finish central government.
Vassilios Peristeras	Programme Officer of ISA and responsible for the SEMIC project.
Veronique Volders	Work for the Flemish Local Governance agency. Program manager of the digital operations. Interested in exploring the semantic of local decisions and e-procurements.
Vjieran Strahonja	Working for the University of Zagreb, Faculty of Organization and Informatics. They are mainly focused on developing public registers.
Ziggy Vanlিশout	Working at Division Data Management for The Flemish government. Their goals are to come up with semantic standards, and to apply core vocabularies.