

Digital Public Administration infographic 2022 Czech Republic

Highlights

Political Communications

In 2022, several initiatives of the Digital Czech Republic Programme focus on the National Open Data Catalogue, as well as the further interconnection of public databases. In this regard, since February 2022, the government authorities at all levels have to publish their digital bulletin boards in the open data format.

Legislation

On February 1, 2022, the Act No. 261/2021 Coll. entered into force amending over 160 legal regulations and contributing to faster digital transformation of national public administration.

Governance

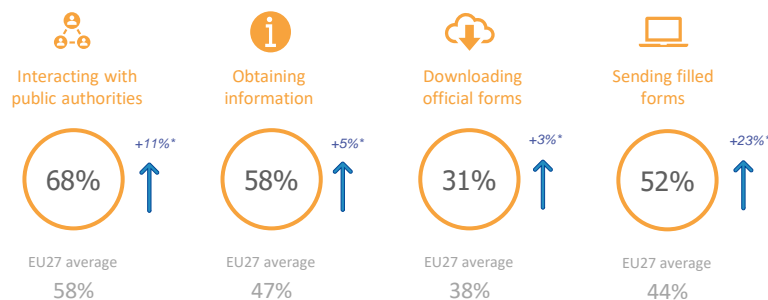

The government plans to introduce several changes into the current digital public administration governance by 2023 that should facilitate strategic focus and data-based decision making in public administration.

Infrastructure

In 2021, the Ministry of Industry and Trade, in cooperation with the relevant ministries, launched standard single registration forms, for legal persons and for natural persons respectively.

Digital Public Administration indicators

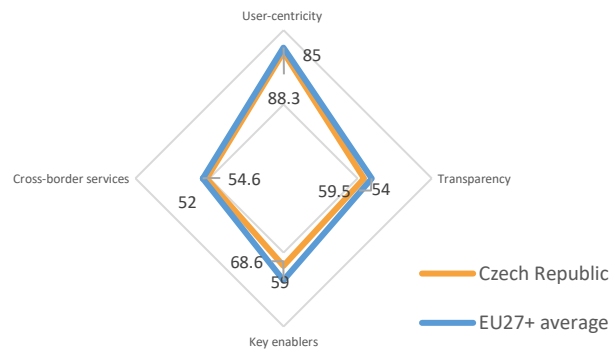

Percentage of individuals using the internet for

Source: Eurostat 2022

eGovernment indicators

eGovernment performance across policy priorities

Source: eGovernment Benchmark report 2022

State-of-Play of Interoperability

Source: European Interoperability Framework Monitoring Mechanism 2021