No recent political communication was adopted in this field to date.

The Law regarding the exchange of data between IT systems and establishing the national platform of interoperability has entered public consultation in mid-March 2022.

The National Directorate of Cybersecurity (DNSC) is the new institutional body established to deal with research, development and expertise in the field of cybersecurity. It is the successor of the Romanian National Computer Security Incident Response Team (CERT).

The National System of Interoperability (SNI) was launched in November 2021 and will connect the databases of Romania’s public administrations.