In July 2019, the Lithuanian government amended the interinstitutional action plan for the implementation of the National Cybersecurity Strategy. The Ruling No 709, amended and recast the first annex of the action plan.

In September 2019, the Ministry of Economy and Innovation initiated the Gov-Tech Lab. The Lab ensures more cooperation between government and business community. In January 2020, the Beta version of Lithuanian Open Data Portal was published.

The responsibility for Lithuania's eGovernment strategy/policy lies within the Ministry of Economy and Innovation. The Ministry is also responsible for policy-making on interoperability activities, while the IS Development Committee is responsible for their implementation.

In January 2020, the Beta version of Lithuanian Open Data Portal was published.