

Regulation 9102014 (eIDAS Regulation)
Summary
ID	EU42
Initiative	European Parliament
Short description	The Regulation 910/2014 of 23 July 2014 highlights the electronic identification and trust services for electronic transactions in the internal market. It has adopted different chapters divided into sections that remark the importance of building trust in the online environment, as the key to economic and social development. The chapters are the following: chapter 1 on general provisions, chapter 2 on internal market principle, chapter 3 on trust services, chapter 4 on electronic documents, chapter 5 on delegations of power and implementing provisions and chapter 6 on final provisions.
Owner	European Parliament
Contact	Not Available/Not Found
Type	Framework
Sub-Type	Strategy
IPR	Not Available/Not Found
Status	Operational
More details
Aggregated business need	ABN – 2 Need to comply with legislation on data exchange ABN – 5 Need for mechanisms to ensure secure data exchange
Documentation	Click Here
EIRA
View	Legal View
Building Block	Public Policy
Reusability
Landscape	The diagram is a 2x2 matrix with 'Domain Specific' on the y-axis and 'High adaptation effort' on the x-axis. The y-axis is also labeled 'Domain Agnostic' at the top. The x-axis is also labeled 'Plug and Play' at the right. A legend indicates: Framework (brown circle), Service (yellow circle), Tool (purple circle). A brown circle labeled 'EU42' is positioned in the 'inspirational' quadrant (top-left). A large blue shaded area covers the 'reusable' (center) and 'usable' (right) quadrants. Labels 'cross-sector' and 'cross-border' are placed in the top and bottom halves of the blue area, respectively.